Large events on the horizon

By Jason A.

As individuals in the Fellowship are gearing up for another calendar year, there are many events nearby in the coming months from Racine to Kenosha and even outside of our intergroup location in Waukesha.

Getting involved in the events is one way to stay plugged in and demonstrate support for not just Racine but Kenosha and beyond.

Leading off the year's events will be the Annual Tri-County Mini-Conference held at Kenosha's UAW Hall March 22.

The Tri-County event will gather individuals from Racine, Kenosha and Lake County, Ill. It involves panel discussions and alkathons during the day's events.

The Badger Intergroup will follow up March 29 at the Waukesha Expo Center.

However, Racine will be on the Area 75 radar May 16-18 at the Racine Marriott and expects to see fellows from the entire southern half of Wisconsin.

The Area 75 conference will also have online registration for the first time and information can be found on the Area 75 website at area75.org

It is an opportunity for anyone hoping to become involved and meet new people from outside the Racine area, right in your backyard.

As Page 98 of Alcoholics Anonymous states: "It is an experience you must not miss!"

Have a story to share?

Your Central Office welcomes story submissions and encourages friends of the Fellowship to share their stories of experience, strength and hope in print.

The Monthly Reprieve also encourages creativity, including some poetry related to your time in recovery.

If anyone in our Fellowship has that creative writing mind, we would love to hear from them—or read from them.

So please send your stories to us at raconewsletter@gmail.com or you can submit them in person at your Central Office volunteer desk.

Hope to hear from you!

RACO Service Opportunities

Sponsoring someone who could use some service work under their belt?

Suggest they join the volunteer team at Racine Area Central Office!

In addition to volunteer to work the desk, which requires six months continuous sobriety, there are spots available on the Steering Committee.

The RACO Steering Committee is in need of a Co-Volunteer Coordinator to assist the Volunteer Chairperson in training and developing volunteers.

Volunteers will be able to carry the message to the next alcoholic in need of support and materials.

You could be the one selling a newcomer his or her first Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous.

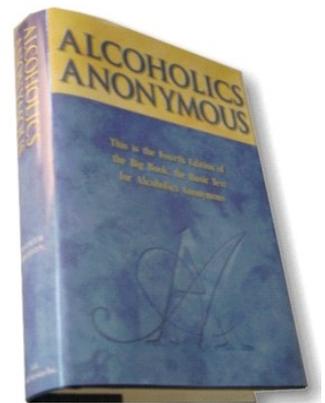

Or you might be the one to help an individual get the information the need to attend their first meeting!

RACO Welcomes member of Districts 7, 17, 36 and 6 to be a part of the message.

The Districts include the entire Racine and Kenosha County area.

Your Central Office also has a variety of meetings on a daily and nightly basis.

So come on down and check out what your Central Office has to offer.

Events and RACO Notes

12 Step responders needed

RACO seeking volunteers from Districts 7, 36

If anyone from Kenosha, Racine and west of the Interstate called the Hotline to seek a meeting schedule or for a 12-Step call, it was a hotline volunteer of Racine Area Central Office answering the phone.

Your Central Office is responsible for conveying information to all Districts it serves—and it is with hope members are able to give back something they were so freely given.

While the newsletter strives to carry events among other items happening in the district it serves, we also hold the responsibility of informing members of service opportunities.

Your Central Office greatly appreciates any help those in Alcoholics Anonymous community offer.

Presently, the Hotline Chairperson is in need of people from both District 7 (Kenosha) and 36 (Western portion of Kenosha/Racine counties) to be a part of the hotline call list—both men and women.

For further information, please contact Hotline Chairperson Mark S. at (262) 721-4397.

Detox Help Needed

Volunteers are needed for detox meetings throughout the area. Detox meetings are a great way to carry your message to the newcomer, who often needs to hear a message of hope.

Requirements to become a volunteer are six months to attend with others and one year to attend solo.

Meetings are held Sunday-Friday at 8pm and Saturday & Sunday mornings at 9:30am.

Detox meetings are held at St. Lukes on Wisconsin Ave. and 14th St. For further information, please contact Roxann D.

Reprieve Mission Statement

The Racine Area Central Office's newsletter, Monthly Reprieve, is published to foster unity and to facilitate communication among A.A. Members, groups and districts within the Racine Area Central Office's service area.

Monthly Reprieve aims to be instrumental in carrying the A.A. Message. This monthly newsletter seeks to publish A.A.-related material, including personal stories of experience, strength and hope. Material published is under the oversight of the Racine Area Central Office's Steering Committee.

Nothing published in the Reprieve should be thought of as a statement of Racine Area Central Office or A.A. Policy. Finally, the publication shall not constitute endorsement by the newsletter itself, by the Racine Area Central Office, Districts, local groups, or A.A. As a whole.

Our Stories

Identifying a Higher Power

By Jason A.

When I first came into the program in 2005, nothing frightened and angered me more than the Second Step and inevitably walked out.

However, due to conceding to my innermost self I was for the three years thereafter, I came to the conclusion I needed to believe in order to stay alive and sober.

Throughout my childhood, I underwent obstacles including my mother who had dealt with and survived cancer along with my own physical shortcomings (hearing difficulty) and doubted the word God.

After listening to the people at my first meetings, I had to come to my own conception of a Higher Power.

After I heard that, it allowed me to come away relieved to know that I can have a different conception than the guy or girl sitting next to me at a meeting. It made things simple.

Early in my recovery, I identified my late grandmother as my Higher Power due to the possibility she may have had the same disease.

While I was four when she passed away, it allowed me to use that as my initial direction. I wanted to make her proud of where my life was leading and always knew she loved me as a child. It was an epiphany to have that as my conception early on.

Throughout the progression of my recovery within the program, my conceptions of a Higher Power have altered and varied greatly year-after-year.

After awhile, I added the Fellowship of AA as part of my Higher Power.

By actively listening to those who have been down the same path I trudged through, the messages conveyed were of hopeful variety.

It gave me my first glimpse of an excerpt contained in "How It Works."

"If you want what we have and are willing to go to any length to get it."

It was during portions of laughter at some meetings which allowed me to see there is some humor in the program.

While I was willing to believe in a Higher Power, "turning it over" early on was not an easy task. I had reservations over it due to the fear of what the outcome would be.

Once I read through Alcoholics Anonymous, it gave me the ability to understand I only need to be willing.

Willingness is what allowed me to unlock the door of the third step and forge ahead into my recovery.

While I am not perfect, my Higher Power only asks me to turn it over and pray on a daily basis, all while trying to stay in the moment.

One ultimate Authority—a Loving God

By Jason A.

Tradition two indicates the group purpose is to have one ultimate authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience.

The ultimate authority of God, or a Higher Power, is important to the Fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous.

We are carriers of the message to the alcoholic who still suffers inside and outside the meeting rooms.

Seeking group consensus is imperative and allows an objective stand point in matters affecting the program.

One individual does not make the Fellowship whole, it takes the entire group to keep the program alive.

Expressing love through a group conscience gives awareness that we are all equal.

It does not matter whether an individual has one month recovery or one year recovery.

The ultimate authority in God allows the group to do "next best thing" with regards to the best interest of the program.

It indicates the "leaders" of the program are trusted servants and do not govern.

Trusted servants are those who carry the message to the best of their abilities and ensures no certain individuals are "the ruler" of the program.

Second Concept

The General Service Conference of A.A. has become, for nearly every practical purpose, the active voice and effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs.

Recalling powerlessness

By Carly R.

What is the slogan that I heard again recently?

Something like, "every problem is a first step problem?" It is one of many that I hear often and don't give much thought.

Occasionally, though, one of those slogans will stick in my craw, and I enjoy dissecting it a bit.

A little bit of back story: At three years sober, I had an identity crisis. You see, I hit my bottom with an outside issue. I came into the program looking to treat that issue, and came to discover that my alcoholism was related to -- if not a big part of -- that issue.

After some time, though, things got a little foggy. I could very clearly recall my powerlessness over that issue but found that I was holding onto the idea that I may still be able to drink like a normy.

There I was, at three years sober, questioning whether or not I am a real alcoholic. I had to turn to the book of Alcoholics Anonymous and re-answer the qualifying questions:

I could "not quit entirely," and I believe that if I drank today I would "have little control over the amount" that I would take (p. 44).

Yes, I believe I have more than one allergy, but that my allergy to alcohol means that I "can never safely" drink again (p. xxiv). I must be resolved in my identity as an alcoholic so that I will continue to go to any lengths to remain recovered, to remain neutral.

If I have any reservations in my identity, I will continue to lag in the steps -- because I believe that I am immune. Don't inventory something? Won't hurt. Holding onto a resentment? I'll be okay. Don't need to pray? I'm too busy any way.

Which certainly means no time for service work. Oh, and that amend that I haven't made won't kill me.

Ultimately, anytime I refuse to take action harkens back to my belief that I am immune. Sometimes I think it's my belief that I can skirt by, but if I am honest it is because I think that I will not drink as a result of lagging in the work.

And the book is very clear. Sure, it's full of suggestions, but these suggestions read a little something like this: "we suggest that you do this. If you don't, you will drink."

Pretty cut and dry. So anytime I have a problem, I can look for the step it relates to and take action.

And if I can't do that, maybe I need to go back to the first and decide for myself if I believe that I am immune.

Carly R is a recovered alcoholic who has been sober since January 2010, has a sponsor, and has been attending her home group, the Friday 530 Sick Room, since shortly thereafter.

Reflection on the Fellowship

By Jason A.

"Practical experience shows that nothing will so much insure immunity from drinking as intensive work with other alcoholics." - Page 89, Alcoholics Anonymous.

When I first glanced at the first sentence in Chapter 7, it did not make sense until I began to practice the Twelfth Step.

Initially coming into the program in 2008, I knew I could not convey what I did not have—by practicing all twelve steps.

But after sticking around awhile I began to play witness to newcomers walking into the doors of Alcoholics Anonymous and experiencing them grow before my eyes.

I knew the program worked with those with more recovery time than myself during the days of survival in 2008, but never envisioned myself to be on the other side of the ball and going shoulder-to-shoulder with them in the battle against the disease of alcoholism.

After I started working with newcomers in the program and seeing them receive sobriety coins at meetings and maintaining service positions, it gave me my first sense of joy in seeing those new to program succeed.

It also gave me the ability to pay it forward and be part of the solution.

Nearing six years in recovery, working with others gave me a whole new outlook on life, as the Ninth promise indicated:

"Life will take on new meaning. To watch people recover, to see them help others, to watch loneliness vanish, to see a fellowship grow up about you, to have a host of friends-this is an experience you must not miss. We know you will not want to miss it. Frequent contact with newcomers and with each other is the bright spot of our lives."

The Gift of Spilled Coffee

Reprinted from the with permission from the Grapevine—June 2013

AA GRAPEVINE

The International Journal of Alcoholics Anonymous

Ten years ago I was leaving a hotel in Atlanta. When I got on the shuttle that would take me to the airport, I spilled coffee all over the elderly driver's crisp white shirt. I gave him an obligatory "Sorry," and he said, "That's OK, don't worry about it."

I didn't even give it a second thought I was too self-absorbed and hungover. I was deep in the throes of alcoholism.

Last week I had to be in Atlanta for business again. My company had set me up for the week at the same exact hotel.

Having been sober 19 months, I saw everything in a whole new light this time. I was there for business and happy to be getting the training. Thanks to working the Steps and attending meetings on a regular basis, I was feeling stronger and praying to God every day.

One morning, I was standing outside my hotel at 6 a.m. sipping coffee and enjoying the cool morning air, when an airport shuttle pulled up. I looked up and out stepped the same driver from ten years ago! I was pretty sure it was him. I thought this could be a good opportunity to exercise Steps Eight and Nine. But he was very busy helping passengers onto his shuttle, and he had time constraints to deal with. Maybe I should wait another day, I thought.

On the day before I was about to leave, the shuttle driver pulled up in front of the hotel a bit early and was waiting for passengers to come down, so I approached him. I asked him how long he had been working as a shuttle driver, and he told me he had been with his company for 21 years. Now I knew it was him—the same guy from ten years ago.

I proceeded to remind him about the spilled coffee ten years ago and how genuinely sorry I was for what had happened. Being the gentleman that he was, he began to laugh and once again said, "That's OK, don't worry about it." By now the shuttle was filling with people, but I was oblivious to their presence. I made sure this man knew I was sincere in my apologies and thanked him for his time. As I turned to get off the shuttle I heard a voice from behind me ... "That was very kind of you," it said.

The shuttle driver had just registered the spirituality of what had transpired. I turned and smiled at him. Heading back into the hotel, I suddenly felt my heart grow a little lighter and a little warmer. There is much to be said about the spirituality of AA.

The program goes far beyond keeping us sober. It teaches us how to live.

Treasurer's Note of Thanks

Submitted by Pam L. and Christine S.

We would like to sincerely thank the many groups within our local districts for their continued support. RACO lives through your purchases of literature and merchandise along with your generous donations.

It is because of each and every one of you we are able to provide the services needed to carry the message to the next suffering alcoholic.

It has been customary for someone on the volunteer staff at RACO to answer each donation with a heartfelt 'Thank You' note. This practice, unfortunately, has been neglected in the past few months. We can offer many 'reasons', 'justifications' or 'excuses' – for after all we ARE alcoholics! But in all seriousness, we are sorry for not recognizing your support in a more personal and timely manner. We are grateful for all you do and plan to get back to basics in 2014.

Please review the enclosed 2013 year end financial information.

If there are any discrepancies or omissions, please do not hesitate to contact Christine S. at racocotreas@yahoo.com.
